SAINTS THIS WEEK

St. Joseph, husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary; March 20.

Joseph was of royal descent, and his family tree is recorded in the gospels of Matthew and Luke. Sacred scripture tells us that having chosen Mary as his betrothed, he discovered that she was pregnant with a child that was not his. His fears were laid to rest by an angel's visit in a dream. He accepted her as his wife, and cared for her through the many dangers and difficulties. Church tradition holds that he respected Mary's special calling from God and loved her in every way except sexually.

This feast has been celebrated on this day since the year 800. It originated in northern France or Belgium. Pope Pius IX named St. Joseph the patron of the universal church.

Solemnity - Not a Lenten Day

St. Dismas, the Good Thief; March 25.

The traditional belief of the Church says that Jesus died on March 25, and so the Church honours the Good Thief on this day also. We read in the gospel of Luke, that two criminals were crucified near Jesus. When one of them spoke against Jesus, the second criminal defended the Lord. This second criminal then said Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom, to which Jesus replied, Truly, I tell you, tell you will be with me in Paradise. (Luke 23:42-43)

The two thieves appear in paintings as early as the year 586, and the name Dismas most likely originated in Syria. Dismas is close to the Greek word meaning East, with a probable reference to the thought that good things arise from the East.

FEASTS THIS WEEK

Annunciation of the Lord; March 25.

The angel Gabriel visited a young woman named Mary, betrothed to Joseph, to announce to her God's plan that she conceive and give birth to God's only Son. The conception took place by the power of the Holy Spirit, who also gave her the necessary grace to accept and fulfil God's will. Although the invitation was made to Mary by God, it was Mary's free choice to accept that we remember as a mark of great faith.

Tradition - starting before the third century - says that Jesus was conceived and died on the date of March 25.

DAYS THIS WEEK

Laetare Sunday; March 26.

The fourth Sunday of Lent is named for the Latin word laetare meaning rejoice. It is taken from the Latin translation of Isaiah 66:10 which reads Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her; rejoice with her in joy, all you who mourn over her. (NRSV) This Sunday sets a tone of joyful anticipation of the Easter mystery. The Church permits the wearing of rose coloured vestments on this day.

MASS INTENTIONS

There are many ways to remember those who have died, but none are greater than having them remembered during the Mass. For the Mass is the most direct and powerful way to present our thanks, praise and petitions to God. We listen to God's word for us, we receive and share in the Body and Blood of Jesus that he makes available to us, we join in the prayers of the entire Church and not only our own and we are able to be reminded again and again that we are part of the great community of living love known as the Communion of Saints.

When we seek to remember a person who is alive (Intentions) we can place their hopes and dreams, sorrows and difficulties, needs and wants before God and invite others to include them in their prayers. When we seek to remember a person who has died (their Repose) we show God our concern for their eternal wellbeing, seek forgiveness of their sins and can ask that they will pray for us while we remain on earth.

Birthdays, anniversaries, death days and special events can all be celebrated and remembered by having the person(s) remembered in Mass.

Mass requests may be made by using the Mass Intentions Envelope located on the table in the church lobby, or by contacting the parish office or by speaking with Father Brian.

DEVELOPMENT & PEACE

During Masses on the Fifth Sunday of Lent the annual collection for Development & Peace will be taken up. Here is some information about the organization and its work, taken from its official website: www.devpo.org

The Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace is the official international organization of the Catholic Church in Canada and the Canadian member of Caritas Internationalis. It receives its support from parish collections, individual donations, and government grants principally from the Canadian International Development Agency.

It supports partners in the Global South = until 1969 the term Third World was used to describe developing countries = who promote alternatives to unfair social, political and economic structures, and educate Canadians about the causes of poverty and help Canadians to work for changes in human dignity.

For over 50 years, D & P has supported over 15,200 local initiatives in agriculture, education, and community action. It has also worked for peace and human rights in 70 countries.

It was founded in 1967 by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops in response to Pope Paul VI's encyclical letter Populorum Progressio which says that Development is the new word for Peace.

In this year of 2017, Development & Peace has chosen the theme of Women At The Heart of Change. As Pope Francis has said, we should pray with him "that in all countries of the world, women may be honoured, respected and values for their essential contribution to society." In this Lenten time we may think, discuss and work toward a future of justice and dignity to all. We need to recall the contribution of women who are at the heart of change and who, for the past fifty years who have been so important to Development & Peace's programs.

All money gathered in the second collection (after Communion) in our parish during the weekend of April 1 & 2, goes to the Canadian Organization for Development & Peace. Envelopes are included in our parish weekly donation envelope boxes, and on the tables in the front foyer.
