THE GOOD SHEPHERD

Many of us in the baby-boomer generation can recall learning, and reciting from memory, the 23rd Psalm: "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want ... and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever." Though thousands memorized this wonderful psalm, how many gave any consideration as to what it meant to have Jesus as our shepherd.

Shepherds were not particularly esteemed in the time of Jesus' life and ministry. There were many that were hirelings, irresponsible and unreliable, especially in the face of danger. But Jesus elevates the role of shepherd to something significant which we are to emulate.

Jesus describes himself as the Good Shepherd which is in contrast to the evil shepherd. The evil shepherd takes his responsibility for the sheep lightly and puts his own interests ahead of the sheep's well-being. Whereas Jesus takes this responsibility as shepherd very seriously, even to the point of dying to save the sheep. He is devoted to their care and protection.

The hireling does not own the sheep, he does not know the sheep individually, and does not love the sheep, therefore he has no qualms about abandoning the sheep in the face of peril. Jesus on the other hand owns the sheep, having bought us with his own blood. We are his prized possession. He also knows us individually and calls us each by name. In this intimacy of knowing and being known personally by Jesus there is great assurance and peace. In addition, he loves us with an everlasting love, even as the Father loves us. Consequently, he brings all of his resources to bear to sustain our life and relationship with him. That is why in the parable of the lost sheep the shepherd is so intent on finding the one that is lost, because he knows the lost sheep personally and loves it deeply.

The sheep respond differently to the Good Shepherd than they do to the hireling. The hireling they do not know, whereas Jesus they know. Some of us have been born into a Catholic home and have grown up with a vicarious relationship with Jesus based on the faith of our parents. When a vicarious relationship is the sum and substance of our faith we often cannot say that we "know" Jesus the Good Shepherd. For those of us who fall in this category it is imperative that we personally embrace Jesus as our Savior. This is crucial: we must be converted - and we must continue to be converted. We must let the Holy Spirit change our lives. We must respond to Jesus Christ. This conversion will enable us to be ever more confident in our relationship with him.

When Jesus speaks the sheep listen to him. The Good Shepherd is desirous of communicating with us, but also that we need to listen to him. Very simply this means that when we hear the Scripture read, read them ourselves, pray, or listen to the Scripture proclaimed we should not simply listen with our ears, but endeavor to have our heart attuned, asking, "What is Jesus saying to us?"

Having heard his voice, the sheep follow him wherever he goes, obeying his voice. As his followers this is where our faith becomes alive. It remains no longer simply an intellectual tenet of faith but becomes a belief that we act upon. Faith and obedience are really one in the same. If you look at Hebrews 11 where is listed an honor roll of faith filled believers, you will find that these heroes' faith is always expressed by obedient behavior. Our faith becomes alive and vibrant only as we follow the Good Shepherd and respond to his leading in loving obedience. Only then do the truths of Psalms 23 become a reality for us.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS:

"Listening, discerning, and living the call of the Lord"
Holy Hour (3:00 p.m.) Cathedral of St. Catherine of Alexandria next Sunday, April 22: "Good Shepherd Sunday"

The purpose of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to "pray the Lord of the harvest to send labourers into his harvest" (Mtt. 9:38; Lk. 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), to the religious life in all its forms (male and female, contemplative and apostolic), to societies of apostolic life, to secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life, in the particular sense of mission "ad gentes." 2018 marks the 55th anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

NATIONAL MARCH FOR LIFE 2018.

Events will be held in Ottawa from Wednesday, May 9 to 11, 2018. Each year thousands of Canadians gather to challenge our government to protect its most vulnerable citizens, the children in the womb. Even if you are unable to attend the March, you have an opportunity to be part of the candlelight vigil symbolically on Wednesday, May 9 (9:00 p.m.). You can join in spirit by sending a pledge (minimum offer $5, available at the parish office); candles will be carried by the participants in the vigil. Life: we stand on guard for thee! For more information call (1-800-730-5358) or visit marchforlife.ca Wednesday, May 9: Candlelight Vigil (9:00 p.m.) Thursday, May 10: Rally on Parliament Hill (12:30 p.m.) March through downtown (1:30 p.m.) Friday, May 11: Youth Conference (8:00 a.m.)
